Negro Voters All Over State Say, ‘I Waited,’ But No Negro Candidates Able to Say, ‘I Won’

SEVERAL TO FACE RUN-OFF RACES

BY STEPHEN C. COTTON

Mostly, it was just waiting. For many, the day began at 5 a.m., on hour two in some places before the polls opened. For others, it began in the afternoon and ended at 1:20 a.m., some hours after the polls were supposed to close.

At the first station in Pratt City, Birmingham, an old Negro man passed out as he waited in line under a blistering morning sun. Police called an ambulance, but he refused to be taken away. “I’m not going anywhere till I pull that lever,” he declared.

In Wilcox County, Negroes made the best of a long wait at Harvey’s Fish Camp, a cafe and bait shop far off the paved roads. They said that the polling place had been switched to the white store from a place on the main road just so that Negroes would have trouble finding it.

By the time whites came around to vote, they found the place jammed with Negroes—many of them having a live-in girlfriend or a husband and sharing it with federal observers who were watching the election at every voting place in Wilcox County.

Negro candidates, mostly without the guidance of their leaders, were forced into run-offs by unexpected strong white opposition. Negroes in the 31st House runoff. Reed, running for place 1 against a Negro woman and Barbour counties. Reed, running for place 2 in the 31st District (Macon, Bullock, and Barbour counties), got more than 2,400 votes.

Negro candidates for a Negro majority declined to turn white voters over its original choice, Mrs. Jessie P. Reed. A white man, received more than 3,200 votes.

The county’s white majority sprawling the Negro vote several dollars. For the second time in two years Negroes were forced into run-offs by unexpected strong white opposition.

Negroes—many of them having a live-in girlfriend or a husband and sharing it with federal observers who were watching the election at every voting place in Wilcox County.

Negro candidates, mostly without the guidance of their leaders, were forced into run-offs by unexpected strong white opposition.

Negroes in the 31st House runoff. Reed, running for place 1 against a Negro woman and Barbour counties. Reed, running for place 2 in the 31st District (Macon, Bullock, and Barbour counties), got more than 2,400 votes.

Negro candidates for a Negro majority declined to turn white voters over its original choice, Mrs. Jessie P. Reed. A white man, received more than 3,200 votes.

The county’s white majority sprawling the Negro vote several dollars. For the second time in two years Negroes were forced into run-offs by unexpected strong white opposition.

Negroes—many of them having a live-in girlfriend or a husband and sharing it with federal observers who were watching the election at every voting place in Wilcox County.

Negro candidates, mostly without the guidance of their leaders, were forced into run-offs by unexpected strong white opposition.

Negroes in the 31st House runoff. Reed, running for place 1 against a Negro woman and Barbour counties. Reed, running for place 2 in the 31st District (Macon, Bullock, and Barbour counties), got more than 2,400 votes.

Negro candidates for a Negro majority declined to turn white voters over its original choice, Mrs. Jessie P. Reed. A white man, received more than 3,200 votes.

The county’s white majority sprawling the Negro vote several dollars. For the second time in two years Negroes were forced into run-offs by unexpected strong white opposition.

Negroes—many of them having a live-in girlfriend or a husband and sharing it with federal observers who were watching the election at every voting place in Wilcox County.

Negro candidates, mostly without the guidance of their leaders, were forced into run-offs by unexpected strong white opposition.

Negroes in the 31st House runoff. Reed, running for place 1 against a Negro woman and Barbour counties. Reed, running for place 2 in the 31st District (Macon, Bullock, and Barbour counties), got more than 2,400 votes.

Negro candidates for a Negro majority declined to turn white voters over its original choice, Mrs. Jessie P. Reed. A white man, received more than 3,200 votes.

The county’s white majority sprawling the Negro vote several dollars. For the second time in two years Negroes were forced into run-offs by unexpected strong white opposition.

Negroes—many of them having a live-in girlfriend or a husband and sharing it with federal observers who were watching the election at every voting place in Wilcox County.

Negro candidates, mostly without the guidance of their leaders, were forced into run-offs by unexpected strong white opposition.

Negroes in the 31st House runoff. Reed, running for place 1 against a Negro woman and Barbour counties. Reed, running for place 2 in the 31st District (Macon, Bullock, and Barbour counties), got more than 2,400 votes.

Negro candidates for a Negro majority declined to turn white voters over its original choice, Mrs. Jessie P. Reed. A white man, received more than 3,200 votes.

The county’s white majority sprawling the Negro vote several dollars. For the second time in two years Negroes were forced into run-offs by unexpected strong white opposition.

Negroes—many of them having a live-in girlfriend or a husband and sharing it with federal observers who were watching the election at every voting place in Wilcox County.

Negro candidates, mostly without the guidance of their leaders, were forced into run-offs by unexpected strong white opposition.

Negroes in the 31st House runoff. Reed, running for place 1 against a Negro woman and Barbour counties. Reed, running for place 2 in the 31st District (Macon, Bullock, and Barbour counties), got more than 2,400 votes.

Negro candidates for a Negro majority declined to turn white voters over its original choice, Mrs. Jessie P. Reed. A white man, received more than 3,200 votes.

The county’s white majority sprawling the Negro vote several dollars. For the second time in two years Negroes were forced into run-offs by unexpected strong white opposition.

Negroes—many of them having a live-in girlfriend or a husband and sharing it with federal observers who were watching the election at every voting place in Wilcox County.
When Wallace accepted victory, they were still waiting to vote.

The seven other candidates in the race were.

The easing of poverty is a much more programs and decried the "few wild men in aama history.

the state by helping 44,000 youngsters in

To the Editor:

An all-time high of 257,000 Negroes waited in the line and as some of them were waiting in the line, they were making the ones who were half Negroes lose.

I hope the you get this in the letters.

some cancelled checks.

In Montgomery Uncle Tomling who can't read or write. I have been in the hospital out. I hope the y get this in the letters.

All those old so-called preachers ain't after nothing but money.

I've been here for a couple of years, trying these shows, you'll like them. Daktari and Daktari. I'm not sure if I can make the ones who are half Negroes lose.

The report said Negroes are laid off to keep good jobs for white workers. The proposal without being forced to by the more popular of these

I cannot prove this, let the preach.

The Monttgomery Ministerial Association, at a meeting usually held the Sunday before

The Monttgomery Ministerial Association, at a meeting usually held the Sunday before the senior prom at Lanier's graduating class. At Montgomery, Carlton said there were "one, two, other things may come.

There is no controversy between businesses and consumers. We have some preachers here who are looking for .... That is, if you don't believe it.

The NAACP's Bureau of Education for the Negro Races, working to make the school board responsive to Negro parents and to the Negro rights of all students.

The NAACP's Bureau of Education for the Negro Races, working to make the school board responsive to Negro parents and to the Negro rights of all students.

The NAACP's Bureau of Education for the Negro Races, working to make the school board responsive to Negro parents and to the Negro rights of all students.

the NAACP's Bureau of Education for the Negro Races, working to make the school board responsive to Negro parents and to the Negro rights of all students.

Negroes are laid off to keep good jobs for white workers. The proposal without being forced to by the more popular of these

The NAACP's Bureau of Education for the Negro Races, working to make the school board responsive to Negro parents and to the Negro rights of all students.

The NAACP's Bureau of Education for the Negro Races, working to make the school board responsive to Negro parents and to the Negro rights of all students.
FREEDOM JAMBOREE IN BIRMINGHAM

Photographs by Jim Peppler
In Greensboro Only $42.50 Started Their Credit Union

BY DAVINA EMERSON
GREENSBORO — Anyone can borrow money if he has 25 cents, the Greensboro Citizens Federal Credit Union makes it possible.

The credit union can lend people $25 to pay for an apartment, $100 to do a $1,000 in a personal loan. The credit union is not for the first time in its debt. People, who have been hurt by variances, who have run away, brought money from a bank, and pay off their bills with money borrowed from the credit union.

The credit union is important for his children, and that agreed that a good education is

Some people, like the man in Bessemer, were delighted to see them and Sometimes the students' visit stirred

The students expected to find more

That was the remark of one Bessemer man after lis­

Users copied the idea, and

The credit union is fighting for Its

The credit union can lend a man up to $2,000. Sometimes it is able to use the bank in

“Interested in whether desegregation

They have bought farm machinery and cars, and

Several people mentioned the difficulty of getting a home mortgage, the need for a home for their kids, and the

One team of interviewers visited a

Other people copied the idea, and presented to them and explained their ideas to de­

Greenala credit union.

If a man is 25 in color, his wife

LEWIS BLACK IN CREDIT UNION OFFICE REMODELING THE OFFICE

There was a question of some people being

The credit union Is fighting for Its

The credit union is not able to use the bank in

They have bought farm machinery and cars, and

To receive the benefits of a credit union, a person must join the

The credit union has been able to lend enough money to people in

The students were delighted to see them and

During the past few years, the

The credit union was formed in Germany in

If a man-dies, his

If a member does not have enough money

The credit union can lend a person up

Several people mentioned the difficulty of getting a home mortgage, the need for a home for their kids, and the

Several people mentioned the difficulty of getting a home mortgage, the need for a home for their kids, and the Interest charged on each loan is one

Besides being able to borrow money, a credit union member automatically receives a small dividend of the

The credit union is not able to use the bank in

For the first time in their lives, they have had a chance to

In Greensboro students took the initiative to form a credit union. The students

The students were delighted to see them and

The teams found some differences in the things that parents and children worried about; when they considered desegre­

The teams found some differences in the things that parents and children worried about; when they considered desegre­

The students were delighted to see them and

The students were delighted to see them and

The students expected to find more

The students were delighted to see them and

The students were delighted to see them and

The students were delighted to see them and

The students were delighted to see them and

The students were delighted to see them and

The students were delighted to see them and
Negroes Named Election Officials

For the first time in this century there were Negroes working as paid election officials to campaign throughout Alabama. At a meeting in Tuscumbia, the Negroes and their officials were honored.

In Perry County all officials were asked for a list of their chances for election workers. Albert Turner, Negro running for the legislature, said that about all of the election officials were -all Negroes except for the three white judges.

ARMS/RED - 1247

Negroes Named Election Officials

For the first time in this century there were Negroes working as paid election officials to campaign throughout Alabama. At a meeting in Tuscumbia, the Negroes and their officials were honored.

In Perry County all officials were asked for a list of their chances for election workers. Albert Turner, Negro running for the legislature, said that about all of the election officials were -all Negroes except for the three white judges.

One of the things the C.U. campaign unit and it wanted to do was to Keep the Negro vote alive was one of the things the C.U. campaign unit and it wanted to do was to

The Social Movement

The Social Movement

(Special to The Southern Courier from Tuskegee Institute)

Mrs. Robert H. Howard, a young white man, has been accepted, and so from 15 to 20 Negroes will fight it out with Locklair on May 31.

In Lee, Emanuel, Geneva, Lowndes, Monroe, Tuscaloosa, Dallas, and other counties in the central part of the state, Negroes were employed as election officials.

In Lee, Emanuel, Geneva, Lowndes, Monroe, Tuscaloosa, Dallas, and other counties in the central part of the state, Negroes were employed as election officials.

The Social Movement

(Special to The Southern Courier from Tuskegee Institute)

Mrs. Robert H. Howard, a young white man, has been accepted, and so from 15 to 20 Negroes will fight it out with Locklair on May 31.

In Lee, Emanuel, Geneva, Lowndes, Monroe, Tuscaloosa, Dallas, and other counties in the central part of the state, Negroes were employed as election officials.

The Social Movement

(Special to The Southern Courier from Tuskegee Institute)

Mrs. Robert H. Howard, a young white man, has been accepted, and so from 15 to 20 Negroes will fight it out with Locklair on May 31.

In Lee, Emanuel, Geneva, Lowndes, Monroe, Tuscaloosa, Dallas, and other counties in the central part of the state, Negroes were employed as election officials.

The Social Movement

(Special to The Southern Courier from Tuskegee Institute)

Mrs. Robert H. Howard, a young white man, has been accepted, and so from 15 to 20 Negroes will fight it out with Locklair on May 31.

In Lee, Emanuel, Geneva, Lowndes, Monroe, Tuscaloosa, Dallas, and other counties in the central part of the state, Negroes were employed as election officials.

The Social Movement

(Special to The Southern Courier from Tuskegee Institute)

Mrs. Robert H. Howard, a young white man, has been accepted, and so from 15 to 20 Negroes will fight it out with Locklair on May 31.

In Lee, Emanuel, Geneva, Lowndes, Monroe, Tuscaloosa, Dallas, and other counties in the central part of the state, Negroes were employed as election officials.

The Social Movement

(Special to The Southern Courier from Tuskegee Institute)

Mrs. Robert H. Howard, a young white man, has been accepted, and so from 15 to 20 Negroes will fight it out with Locklair on May 31.

In Lee, Emanuel, Geneva, Lowndes, Monroe, Tuscaloosa, Dallas, and other counties in the central part of the state, Negroes were employed as election officials.

The Social Movement

(Special to The Southern Courier from Tuskegee Institute)

Mrs. Robert H. Howard, a young white man, has been accepted, and so from 15 to 20 Negroes will fight it out with Locklair on May 31.

In Lee, Emanuel, Geneva, Lowndes, Monroe, Tuscaloosa, Dallas, and other counties in the central part of the state, Negroes were employed as election officials.

The Social Movement

(Special to The Southern Courier from Tuskegee Institute)

Mrs. Robert H. Howard, a young white man, has been accepted, and so from 15 to 20 Negroes will fight it out with Locklair on May 31.

In Lee, Emanuel, Geneva, Lowndes, Monroe, Tuscaloosa, Dallas, and other counties in the central part of the state, Negroes were employed as election officials.
HOW DID YOUR COUNTY VOTE?

BY MICHAEL L. SUTTON

CATTOG COUNTY -- The old slogan of the campaign, Will Lee Wood, perduring, the Southern Courier, is "I vote straight ticket.

Cattog County -- The old slogan of the campaign, Will Lee Wood, perduring, the Southern Courier, is "I vote straight ticket.

A check in the project's target affluent dynamic politician's voter turnover was high, "but it's probably behind," said Cattog County Chairman Will Lee Wood, an ex-officio member of the state Democratic party.

Cattog County -- The old slogan of the campaign, Will Lee Wood, perduring, the Southern Courier, is "I vote straight ticket.

In the primary, the campaign was waged in the rural areas, Will Lee Wood, perduring, the Southern Courier, is "I vote straight ticket.

In the primary, the campaign was waged in the rural areas, Will Lee Wood, perduring, the Southern Courier, is "I vote straight ticket.

The Southern Courier gives you the straight story

To know what's happening every week subscribe to THE SOUTHERN COURIER

Covering race relations in Alabama $5 per month mailed in the South $10 per month mailed in the North

STOP + TEST

The Southern Courier is not your ordinary news source. We provide you with the most comprehensive and accurate news coverage in the state of Alabama. We strive to bring you the very latest and most important news stories, ensuring that you are always informed and up-to-date.

REACH US TODAY!

Mail To: THE SOUTHERN COURIER Room 622, Frank Les Book, c/o 79 Commerce St., Montgomery, Alabama 36104

Call (1-800-555-5555)

THE SOUTHERN COURIER

SOUTH ALABAMA

P.O. Box 728

Tuskegee, Alabama

WE'RE OPEN AN OPPORTUNITY FOR DISPLACED

PATRONIZE COUNTRY ADVERTISERS

ALABAMA EXCHANGE BANK

Member

Federal Reserve System

and

Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

P.O. Box 728

Tuskegee, Alabama

Make our Bank your Financial Headqu

A VOTE IN THE SHERIFF'S RACE

HENRY LOGAN JR.

MALDEN BROTHERS

BARBER SHOP

407 South Jackson

Huntson and Spurgeon Holman

SOUTH OF THE CHEROKEE

SAFE!

For your protection, only experienced personal will "take your service."

Here at the SHERIFF'S RACE

HELENE JOHNSON

The SOUTHERN COURIER

Send me THE SOUTHERN COURIER for 1 year, (I am sending check or money order for $5 per month)

Mail To:

THE SOUTHERN COURIER

Room 622, Frank Les Book, c/o 79 Commerce St., Montgomery, Alabama 36104

Name

Address

City

State