OEO Decides:

NO MONEY FOR CDGM

BY GAIL FIAL

Jackson, Miss. - A storm which has been gathering over Mississippi all summer finally broke this week. OEO announced that it will not give any more money to the present Child Development Group of Mississippi (CDGM).

CDGM is the state-wide Head Start program run by Negroes from the state. The agency's leaders learned that a new, bi-racial board had been formed to run anti-poverty programs in Mississippi.

CDGM, which has reached more than 15,000 children through centers since last March, can now lose its grant in mid-September. The Head Start group slated for federal funds in the fall and its support in mid-September.

Samson Crush Condemns

From Dallas Sheriff Race

The candidate would talk about the race. What most people thought of Samson Cannon, Freedom candidate, was that he was a fiery orator and would have no trouble attracting voters.

OEO decides that CDGM, who say OEO amounts at best to custodial day-care by persons unqualified to run such an operation, will talk, or else the agency will have to refund CDGM.

To the Editor:

The Children’s Defense Fund recently convened an extraordinary conference to find solutions to problems faced by the nation’s children. The conference was attended by a diverse group of leaders from various fields, including education, health, and social services. Their goal was to identify strategies that could improve the lives of children across the country.

As a Child Welfare Worker in [insert location], I want to highlight the importance of these efforts. Children are our future, and it is crucial that we invest in their well-being. By addressing the root causes of poverty and promoting policies that support children, we can help create a better future for all.

To learn more about how you can support these initiatives, please visit [insert website]. Together, we can make a difference in the lives of children.

Sincerely,

New Nations Struggle to Solve Tough Problems

Africa is a big country that takes up almost one sixth of the Earth. It is a land where many different kinds of people live. Some of these people are like the Americans who live in the United States. They have their own country and are independent of other nations. But other people in Africa are still living in the same way as their ancestors did. They have never had a chance to learn how to read or write. They have never had a chance to go to school. They have never had a chance to see the world beyond their own villages. They have never had a chance to see the world beyond their own country.

Africans are a very mixed group of people. They come from all over the world. They have lived in Africa for thousands of years. They have lived in Africa for hundreds of years. They have lived in Africa for many years. They have lived in Africa for a long time. They have lived in Africa for a short time. They have lived in Africa for a lot of time. They have lived in Africa for a little time.

Where Do You Stand On Civil Liberties?

"During the years of its existence the American Civil Liberties Union has played a significant role in defending our basic American freedom. Your voice has always been raised clearly and sharp-ly when our liberties have been threatened. Assertion is a stronger arm than un-compromising efforts."
