ACHR Director Knifing Victim

BY MICHAEL LOTTMAN

MONTGOMERY -- The announcement of the death of Alabama Council on Human Relations chairman by a knifing victim.

Robert Allen Black, head of the state-wide Memphis group, was found dead in an area where the group was attacked by a gang of white youths.

Allen Black of Florence, a representative of the NAACP Legal Defense Fund, was also on the scene. Witnesses told Black, a Negro, they were surprised to find the body of a white man outside the Crystal Gymnasium. The man was found dead with a single stab wound in the chest.

Black said he had been talking to some of the group members about their plans for a demonstration against the draft this week, with "prepared to pay the consequences" explained.

They were meeting at 3 p.m., while Valder, his wife, was killed in a car accident on their way to the meeting.

At one point, when we covered the story for the first time, we had been talking about the draft. The man who was killed was wearing this," he said. "I'm not going to serve the draft."
The Southern Courier

May 13-14, 1967

Southern Courier is published weekly by non-profit, non-stock corporation, for the benefit and information of the citizens of Tuscaloosa County, Alabama. It is printed entirely in the county and distributed free of charge to all subscribers.

By Roger Hines

- Butler Integrates
- Hot Debates On Schools and War
- Letters to the Editor
- Editorial Opinion
- MCALLEN BRIEFING CHECKS (cont.)
- McKinney
- McNamara, the President and the Pork Barrel
- Martin
- The Southern Courier
- The Southern Courier
- Truman
- Tyler, Tuskegee Institute High School
- Walter Bambere Will Not Be Obligated to "Black Power"

---

By Roger Hines

- BUTLER—After a six-month "planning stage," the new Negro General Hospital opened its official patient-care operations in May.

- MONTGOMERY CANNOT ALLOW THE NEGRO BLOC VOTE TO CONTROL CITY HALL

- WALTER BAMBERG WILL NOT BE OBLIGATED TO "BLACK POWER"

---

Montgomery cannot allow the Negro bloc vote to control city hall.

Montgomery, Ala.: There can be little question but that the Negro bloc vote will be important in determining the outcome of the May 13 city council election. The candidates no longer rely on the appeal of bigotry. The election of Negro candidates will be a direct result of the Negro bloc vote. The Negro bloc vote will control the city council. The city council will in turn control the mayor, who will control the state of Alabama. The state of Alabama will in turn control the nation. The nation will in turn control the world. The world will in turn control the future. Therefore, we must not allow the Negro bloc vote to control the city of Montgomery.

-Walter Bamberger

---

Walter Bamberger believes in equal treatment for all citizens.

Walter Bamberger will not promise special privileges for the Negro bloc vote.

Let's look at the vote of March 20, 1967:

There are two laws in the lens of big hats with white epaulettes:

- Events
  - D Thường
  - The delegates of the American Negro Congress, which opened in New York yesterday, will meet here today to plan the first national Negro convention to be held in the nation's capital.
  - The delegates of the American Negro Congress, which opened in New York yesterday, will meet here today to plan the first national Negro convention to be held in the nation's capital.
  - The delegates of the American Negro Congress, which opened in New York yesterday, will meet here today to plan the first national Negro convention to be held in the nation's capital.

---

Walter Bamberger Will Not Be Obligated to "Black Power"

Walter Bamberger believes in equal treatment for all citizens. He will not promise special privileges for the Negro bloc vote.

-Al in the Montgomery Advertiser last week

---

Hot Debates On Schools and War

By Roger Hines

- BUTLER—Enough freedom to polish our pupils?

- Letters to the Editor

---

Letters to the Editor

- To the Editor:
- Tuskegee Mathematics Talent Search, sponsored by the Abbeville District Association of Teachers, is now being conducted throughout the county.

---

Mathematics Talent Search Winners

Tuskegee, Ala.: The winners of the first Alabama Mathematics Talent Search, sponsored by the Abbeville District Association of Teachers, were announced last week. The competition was held in Tuskegee, Ala., on Saturday, May 13.

---

McALLEN BRIEFING CHECKS

- McKinney

---

McNamara, the President and the Pork Barrel

- Martin

---

The Southern Courier

The Southern Courier is a bi-weekly newspaper published in Tuscaloosa, Alabama. It includes local news, sports, and other community-related content.

---

HELA AT CAYERS HILL

(Photograph by George Brown)
LOUIE HARRIS
Cutting Pulpwood in Mississippi

MENDENHALL, Miss.--Louie Harris is 46 years old. For the past seven years, he has worked at cutting and hauling pulpwood. Harris is self-employed. He buys the pulpwood on other people's land, and then cuts it down and sells it.

His costs—including a "stumpage" fee paid to the owner of the land, and wages for his helpers—amount to about $60 a day. In a normal day, hauling three truck loads of pulpwood, he will earn $120, leaving him about $60 to take home to his wife and five children.

Photographs
by
Jim Peppler
LEE COUNTY PEOPLE LEARN HOW TO BE Head Start Teachers

BY MARY ELLEN GALE

AUBURN—Thirty young housewives gathered around a long table one day last month. One by one, they stood up and told jokes their children would have liked.

"I've seen a man so tall he couldn't get a haircut in heaven and a shoeshine in hell," said one of them.

"I've seen a night so dark a raindrop knocked on the door and asked for a match to light the way to the ground," said another.

"Why did the normal hair like mother under the engine ask a third. "Because he wanted a stepmother.""

"We've learned so many things," said Mrs. Juanita Hughley, a teacher aide. "How to treat a crying baby, get children to share, about the proper time to cooperate with others, how to get them to choose, about the proper pace."

"If I had to go through it again, I'd do it differently," said Mrs. Eve Wilson, one of the white teachers, said that racial tension was "not really that big a problem to begin with. People were interviewed, and they were going to be working on an equal basis." Mrs. Wilson said she was "not worried at all. It's been good for all of us."

Several Negro teachers didn't want to talk about race relations. "We're all teachers," said one of them. "We're all here to prepare the training session on race problems.

(Continued on page five, col. 2)
In Perote on election day, Miss Outsey, a poll-watcher, was "shoved me back with both hands," she testified. "It was not fair."

Bullock County's Negro candidates.

Although the man told Johnson to keep his mouth shut, she said she later told a Negro official at the armory, "I'm mad at that fellow."

Miss Outsey admitted that she was a poll-watcher and had the privilege of voting twice. "I told them they had a poll official, I told them I wanted to look at the ballots," she said.

"After every Negro came, a white man would come in," Miss Outsey said. "It was not a fair canvass."

"That canvass is not fair."

FRED D. GRAY CAMPAIGNING FOR CONGRESS

In front of the armory, Miss Outsey was "shoved me back with both hands." She said the white man told her and two other poll-watchers for Negroes, "You can't vote at all."

"They won't vote."

Bullock County official Judge Fred Williams, who argued with a Negro voter, said that the"Negroes were acting like children."

"The children are not here, Judge."

"Tell me what's wrong with them."

Miss Outsey testified that, throughout the canvass, she was told, "You can't vote at all."

"Neither did the rest of the people."

Johnson, the Negro poll-watcher, "I told the police to go down and tell them they weren't going to help us." She said she was told, "You can't help them. It's no business to help them."

"The Negroes were acting like children."

"I think we can work them."

Sandra McDonald Says:

My name is Sandra McDonald, I live in Athens, Ala. I sell The Southern Courier. My husband is 20 years old. He is a white man. I sell The Southern Courier. My name is Sandra McDonald. I sell The Southern Courier. My husband is 20 years old. He is a white man. I sell The Southern Courier.

WORLD PRAYER CONGRESS

To become a member of the WORLD PRAYER CONGRESS

Monday, May 15, 1967

WORLD PRAYER CONGRESS

Write to the World Congress for information. A regular church, an assembly of preachers as you wish, as often as you wish. A regular church, an assembly of preachers as you wish, as often as you wish. A regular church, an assembly of preachers as you wish, as often as you wish. A regular church, an assembly of preachers as you wish, as often as you wish.

ANTIPROTEST ADVERTISERS

ADULT EDUCATION CLASSES

SUMMER SESSIONS!

Use The Southern Courier for advertising. Ask your local newspaper what you wish. The text is printed in bold.

It's better than "Oklahoma!" - it's Miss Outsey's real-life experience.

WORLD PRAYER CONGRESS

Write to the World Congress for information. A regular church, an assembly of preachers as you wish, as often as you wish. A regular church, an assembly of preachers as you wish, as often as you wish. A regular church, an assembly of preachers as you wish, as often as you wish.

EDITORIALS

The Southern Courier is a bi-weekly publication printed in Montgomery, Ala. It is published by the Methodist Press Association, Inc. It is distributed to all parts of the state.

The Southern Courier is a bi-weekly publication printed in Montgomery, Ala. It is published by the Methodist Press Association, Inc. It is distributed to all parts of the state.

The Southern Courier is a bi-weekly publication printed in Montgomery, Ala. It is published by the Methodist Press Association, Inc. It is distributed to all parts of the state.

The Southern Courier is a bi-weekly publication printed in Montgomery, Ala. It is published by the Methodist Press Association, Inc. It is distributed to all parts of the state.

The Southern Courier is a bi-weekly publication printed in Montgomery, Ala. It is published by the Methodist Press Association, Inc. It is distributed to all parts of the state.

The Southern Courier is a bi-weekly publication printed in Montgomery, Ala. It is published by the Methodist Press Association, Inc. It is distributed to all parts of the state.

The Southern Courier is a bi-weekly publication printed in Montgomery, Ala. It is published by the Methodist Press Association, Inc. It is distributed to all parts of the state.
Stock Loans-12% a Month-at 2%

WASHINGTON, D.C. — People who carry low incomes may get help from an emergency loan program being started Saturday in the D.C. area. Mrs. Augusta Wilkinson, director of the program, said that those in need of help would be made only to people who have not carried any criminal record and who have not been arrested or charged with use of liquor stamps.

Mrs. Wilkinson and others said people who need a loan to deal with food stamps should apply at the community action centers (CAC) in their areas. The CAC is operated in cooperation with the local welfare office and the food-stamp program.

There will be a $16 charge on the loan, the financial director said. Those who need help were said to be "subjected to the community's ability to support," according to a publication for the program.

The program is a result of the poverty that has been faced by families, said a local resident. The program will be open to anyone who has been restless and who has not been arrested or charged with use of liquor stamps.

The program was opened to address the needs of those who need help to deal with food stamps. The program will be open to anyone who has been restless and who has not been arrested or charged with use of liquor stamps.

Mr. Wilkinson and others said people who need a loan to deal with food stamps should apply at the community action centers (CAC) in their areas. The CAC is operated in cooperation with the local welfare office and the food-stamp program.

There will be a $16 charge on the loan, the financial director said. Those who need help were said to be "subjected to the community's ability to support," according to a publication for the program.