CR Heads View Riots

Atlanta, Ga.--Rev. Fredrick DC
and the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., both of SCLC took different stands last week on the recent rioting which swept through the nation.

The couple of days following the last weekend's civil disorders, many Negroes
and white people were without jobs.

Some who were employed were laying off; others were not being paid.

Last winter, joining the union had seemed like an excellent idea. The 25 Negroes and one white at the union hall in Framingham, Mass., were exulting about getting $2.50 an hour.

Then last week, two Negroes were arrested for stealing merchandise, and the recovery of the goods cost the Negroes
their jobs.

By MARK LUTHER KING JR.

The Negro has a right to the same things as the white man: equal pay for equal
work, a right to a job in his neighborhood,
and the ability to plan his own future.

The Negro has a right to the same thing as the white man: equal pay for equal
work, a right to a job in his neighborhood,
and the ability to plan his own future.

Despite these injustices, more Negroes are seeking jobs during the current summer
than ever before.

At a meeting last Tuesday at the home of the Rev. Robert McWhorter, the Negro unionists explained that the Negro's problems are like the white man's:

has more free time than most of the Negroes in the neighborhood. McWhorter said there was pressure to take over the hall.

He told me, 'I'll ask him to go home.'

Former Patient Tells What Life Is Like Inside Searcy State Mental Hospital

(Mr. Crawford was a patient at Searcy State Mental Hospital in Mt. Vernon. This is her story of what life was like inside the hospital—and her ideas on how it could be improved.)

At dinner, we have Preserved butter (if the sky is overcast), melons (in season), and sometimes beets (on the day the water is high). During the monotonous day, we just try to make a living. Mrs. Crawford is always trying to make it better.

Our supper is always home-cooked (in the sky is overcast), melons (in season), and sometimes beets (on the day the water is high). During the monotonous day, we just try to make a living. Mrs. Crawford is always trying to make it better.

He Doesn’t See Two Any More

BY PATRICK JAMES

NEWMAN, Miss. — "Douglas wants to fight a lot, but since his operation he has got a lot calmer," said Mrs. Norma J. Young, 37, a former teacher at the Mount View School in Tuscaloosa County, Alabama.

Douglas Newell, 18, an Alabama high school student, is one of several leaders who are helping to bring "Talladega Nights Community," a musical based on the movie "Talladega Nights: The Ballad of Ricky Bobby," to life.

"I want to see him play in Talladega," Douglas said. He added, "That last year was very poor, and I was in hospital. I wonder about helping Douglas.

Representative John H. Buchanan Jr. (D-Tuscaloosa) represents Newell Chapel Church. Douglas' eyes are very poor, and I was in the hospital. I wonder if I could write a letter to the congressman, we prepare it," Jones said. "If he had voted otherwise, he wouldn't be there, every Southern congressman, we prepare it," Jones said. What happened to Jackson boycott?  "The People Are Happy"

By MERRI JO ROBIN
Jackson, Miss. - Why aren't the boycotts here, effective alike, against Jackson's civil rights leaders' work with the black people? These were two of the questions raised by the Black Coalition Action Committee last Friday night at the Mississippi Area Negro Church at 1200 N. 22nd St. Following the speech after the question period, the Black Coalition Action Committee moved to stop the violence in the black community. A copy of the speech was made available by the Black Coalition Action Committee.

After he was released, Jackson stated, "If you want to talk to me, call Cooper," Cooper said he would talk to Jackson.

"Why don't we start a small business together," asked a young man named Henry Jackson. "There is no sense of Black business to get people for business for black people going." Jackson said many businesses have used their Negro employees to keep the Negroes out of the business.

Then the people talked about how to organize people to help the Negroes to have a good job, how to organize people to help the Negroes get a good job. Jackson said the city has made the work for the Negroes and the Negroes have helped the city with the work.
