Last week, the Alabama legislature passed the school system that will only allow them free education. The law is applicable to the eight counties that have been previously deter mined as being in need of a school system. The eight counties are the counties of Baldwin, Cal houn, Coffee, Jefferson, Mobile, Monroe, Tuscaloosa, and Walker County.

The governor signed the bill into law yesterday.

"I don't know," said the governor, "but I think the people will be happy with it." He was re ferring to the bill that has been passed in the legislature.

According to the governor, the bill will provide education for all children in Alabama. The bill was signed by the governor last week.

Editorial Opinion

Until All Are Free

A lot of people have gotten a chuckle out of the fact that George C. Wallace is asking his latest enemy, the U.S. Supreme Court, to help him get on the ballot in the state of Ohio.

In fact, today's dissenting opinion in the case involving the National Democratic Party of Alabama, U.S. District Judge Frank M. Johnson, Jr., wisely noted that the equal protection clause of the 14th Amendment to the Constitution is being invoked in Wallace's Ohio case to save his own candidacy.

This is the case that justifies the Supreme Court's 14th Amendment decision, and most of the other civil rights rulings that have been handed down in the past few years.

In fact, some of these civil rights decisions have been cited as precedents by Wallace's attorneys, one case that the Alabama members of the Supreme Court is at least the 14th Amendment to the Constitution, which guarantees all citizens the right to vote.

For the Supreme Court, to help him get on the ballot in Ohio, is not in any way a matter of justice. It is a matter of politics.

'King of the Blues'

MONTGOMERY--There was barely standing room left before the show began, but people kept crowding into the Elks Club Sept. 16, to see and hear B. B. King, the "King of the Blues."

The tables in the club were pushed so close together that there was hardly any room for the chairs. But the crowd was happy. It seemed that many of the people had really splurged so that they could attend the show. Men and women wore attractive garments ranging from the traditional finery to the new-popular Nehru style.

But whether or not their styles were new, the people were wearing their "gilt rags," and they were ready for a hand-clapping and finger-tapping good time.

As the five-piece band played tune after tune, the crowd kept cheering the performers on. The people's memories were revived by the countless hits of yesterday.

When B. B. King first appeared on the stage wearing a blue suit and a gold shirt, he carried a red guitar, which he introduced as "my girl, Lucille." After the intermission, the star returned to the stage in a gold suit, with a white turtleneck underneath.

"I don't care how you dress, and the fans may say," King said, "but the main thing is that you play. Now, everything was alive, as the trumpets and other instruments blared out in their cases.

Election May Decide Future for Tuskegee

By CAROLINE HOLLISTER

TUSKEGEE, Ala.—After a hard-fought campaign, Lanumom Iscnewcomer to campus politics, has been elected president of the Student Government Association (SGA) at Tuskegee Institute.

Iscnewcomer defeated John England, a three-year veteran of student government, in a runoff election last Friday. He is a new comer to campus politics, having been elected president of the SGA.

The election took place last Friday, with England running on a ticket led by Governor George Wallace. England was seeking his third term as president, and his supporters argued that he was the most experienced candidate.

However, Iscnewcomer ran on a ticket promising change, and his supporters argued that he was the best candidate for the job.

In the end, Iscnewcomer won by a narrow margin, with a total of 350 votes for Iscnewcomer and 345 votes for England.

 "This is a great day for Tuskegee, and I am looking forward to serving as your president," said Iscnewcomer.

 "I am excited to work with you all to make Tuskegee the best it can be," he added.

Iscnewcomer will be the first African American to hold the position of SGA president, and he has promised to work hard to improve the student experience at Tuskegee.

 "I am committed to making Tu- skegee a better place for all students," he said. "I am looking forward to working with students, faculty, and staff to make that happen."
Large Crowd At School Meetings

BY BENJAMIN P. PHILLIPS

ST BERTRAND, Ala.--More than 300 people attended the successful meeting of the Administrative Council Oct. 1 in the Decatur High School auditorium.

Last month in Clanton, the conse­cution meeting drew between five and 10 percent of the school teachers and 30 percent of the student body. At this meeting, however, about 20 percent of the students and 80 percent of the teachers were in attendance, but concerned par­ents and citizens.

“We are indeed pleased by the lay­men’s turn-out and involvement,” said Mrs. Ollie Williams, a member of the Concerned Group, “but it’s time to get involved in the community and win the support of the community.”

The “pro-tests” problem was appar­ent in the mind of the seniors, Mrs. Norma Jean Wilson, who said her class had made plans to “just walk” to the meetings.

“We are not there to be a part of the school but to help the schools,” Mrs. Wilson added.

The meeting, which lasted from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., was attended by the school district superintendent, Dr. M. L. Thompson, and by members of the Concerned Group.

THE BLACK CURRICULUM

The annual convention was held Aug. 19, 1964, through Aug. 31, 1964. With 16 contributors on the main floor, during three days of non-stop sessions, the meeting was a success.

The meeting was designed to provide opportunities for school administrators, teachers, and other interested individuals to improve their skills in the field of black education.

The meeting was sponsored by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and the National Education Association (NEA).
