As long as he could find qualified Negroes, Holmes telephoned William Chandler to share in the benefits.

Just Like Grown-Up Legislators

In Montgomery, Ala., last weekend in the state capital, the first Negroes to enter the Alabama Assembly were arrayed against one man, said Lawrence Guyot, chairman of the Southern Student Organizing Committee.

"This man personifies in one body all the struggles that the Negro has had to face in the struggle for freedom," said the law professor and former Governor George C. Wallace.

"This man personifies all the sacrifices that have been made by the Negro people in the South," said Chandler.

A DAY OF PROTEST AT TUSKEGEE

TUSKEGEE, Ala.—On Monday, March 25, Tuskegee Institute students staged a sit-in to demand a better education and more student power.

For several hours, the students blocked entrances to college buildings, while faculty-student committees tried to work out an agreement with the administration. Late that night, Institute President Luther H. Foster agreed to many—but not all—of the demands.

Above, James N. M. Henderson (left), a biology professor and member of the faculty-student committee, and Warren Hamilton (right), president of the Student Government Association, address several hundred protesters in front of the administration building.

Student leaders organized the campus-wide class boycott when this and other sessions failed to bring the changes they wanted.

If May's Has a Good Season

By Michael S. Lottman

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.--As the close of the National League race nears, the St. Louis Cardinals look like the team that will end the season at the top. Their manager, Red Schoendienst, is optimistic about his club's chances to win the pennant.

The Cards, who have been in contention all season, are still in the hunt for the pennant. Their pitching has been solid, and their hitting has been consistent. The Cards have a good chance to win the pennant, but they will have to play well down the stretch to do it.

The Cards' offense has been strong, with such players as Bob Gibson, Lou Brock, and Orlando Cepeda leading the way. Gibson has been one of the best pitchers in the league, while Brock has been a top hitter. Cepeda has been a consistent hitter throughout the season.

On the pitching side, the Cards have done well, with such pitchers as Gibson, Jim Mallon, and Bob Shaw. Gibson has been one of the best pitchers in the league, while Mallon and Shaw have been solid starters. The Cards' bullpen has been strong, with such relievers as John Dorman and Ken Johnson.

The Army Can’t Remember

BY MARY ELLEN GALE

Huntsville, Ala. (AP) — A reporter for the Associated Press, who specializes in the Civil War, was told by a military official that the Army couldn’t remember where soldiers were killed in the Battle of Atlanta.

The Army was referring to a list of names of soldiers killed in the Battle of Atlanta, which is kept in a warehouse in Washington, D.C.

According to the official, the list was compiled by the Army during the Civil War, but it was destroyed in a fire in 1865.

The official said the Army doesn’t have access to the list, and it has no plans to try to locate it.

The official also said the Army doesn’t keep records of where soldiers are buried, and it doesn’t have a system for tracking soldiers who are missing.

Negroes Lose in Selma

APRIL 11, 1965 — Three Negro candidates for the city council lost their bids for office in the primary runoff.

Edwin Maddox, T. H. Morris, and Mark J. Anderson all lost their bids for office.

Maddox, a Democrat, said he was surprised that he lost.

“I didn’t expect to lose,” he said. “I thought I had a good chance.”

Morris, a Republican, said he was disappointed with the results.

“I thought we had a good chance,” he said. “I’m not sure what happened.”

Anderson, a Libertarian, said he was disappointed with the results.

“I thought we had a good chance,” he said. “I’m not sure what happened.”

Dear Editor:

I am writing to express my concern about the recent decision to merge two high school athletic associations in our state. As a parent and a former athlete, I believe that this move is not in the best interests of our students and our communities.

Firstly, it is important to understand the impact of this decision on student-athletes. By merging the associations, we are eliminating the possibility of competitive games between schools that have traditionally faced off in the past. This can be particularly damaging for students who have developed a love for the sport through these rivalries. It can also affect team morale and the overall enjoyment of the experience.

Secondly, the merging of these associations is concerning from a financial perspective. With resources being distributed across a larger group of schools, there may be less funding available for individual programs. This could lead to cuts in coaching positions, facilities, and other necessary resources that are crucial for the development of young athletes.

Lastly, I would like to point out the potential negative impact on community spirit. High school sports are a significant part of our local culture, bringing people together for shared experiences. By merging these associations, we risk losing a valuable part of our community identity.

I urge the state authorities to reconsider this decision. Perhaps there could be a way to maintain some level of competition between schools while still promoting collaboration and shared resources. We need to prioritize the well-being and development of our young athletes, and this action does not align with that goal.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
