A Black Amas in Mobile?

BY JOHN SINGLETON

BHMINGHAM, Ala. -- Clarence Clemons, 82, a long-time resident of Mobile, said he was a "Christmas mess" when talking about his new mobile home.

"I've got a "Christmas mess" in the local mobile home," said Clemons, who lives in a small, two-bedroom mobile home.

Clemons, who was born in Mobile in 1930, said he was chosen for the "Christmas mess" because he was one of the first residents of the Neelytown area. He said he was chosen because he was one of the first residents of the Neelytown area.

"I'm just happy to be here," said Clemons, who lives on a street named "Christmas Place." "I'm just happy to be here."
uring his visit, Senator Joe Murphy was shown around the city by Mayor Joseph F. Smith, who is also a Democrat. Murphy expressed his support for the city's growth and development, and he praised its residents for their hard work and dedication.
Boys Town

'We Do a Little At a Time'

MT. MEIGS, Ala. — "We try to reach the child before he gets into trouble," says the Rev. Michael Coswell, school director at Boys Town. "We have been a school for homeless youths since it was built 36 years ago.

Located on a plot of land off Interstate 85, Boys Town is home for the 45 boys now living there. "There are no restrictions on the children by law," Coswell explained. "Usually, if a boy leaves without permission, we let him go.

Jerry Bledie, one of the older youths, was born in Mobile, and has been living at Boys Town for 12 years. Most of the structures at the school were built by the boys, herself included. "We place a great deal of sentiment value on them," Bledie said, as he spoke of plans for a swimming pool, a game room, and a new chapel. "This may seem as if I'm dreaming," he said, "but many of the things we have here started this way.

Photos by Kenneth W. Lumpkin
Remember Him?

Potpourri

Remember Rim?

Remember Rim?

Remember Rim?

Remember Rim?

Remember Rim?

Remember Rim?

Remember Rim?

Remember Rim?

What Is This Horse Thinking About?

The Poor Girls of Birmingham and Their Banana Tree

Lights & Plenty

Civil Rights Low-Point of the Year

Best Ad of the 1968 Campaign

Herbert Morton says: "It looks like a ZOO is it a breakfast food?

is it a soup? is it Noah's Ark? No, it's a ballot.

Even Ripley wouldn't believe it - why should you?

Remember Them?

John Cashin's Necktie
Our service is excellent
You are invited to use the many customer services provided by our bank. Many are free. Let us provide sound advice and the credit best suited to your needs.

WEUP Radio Station
Huntsville, Ala.

WEUP, Your Source for Project Discovery (the Fern Valley, Ala., education program). Project Discovery contributes to the lives of local students and provides unique educational and environmental experiences not normally part of their time.

The group's aim is to give the local community a chance to learn about issues, and this year's theme will focus on the environment.

WEUP, as usual, serves the group double-duty. Co-hosts, which are the hosts of the station's own news program, are also on-hand to help.

All programs give our advertising. WEUP, serving Fayetteville and surrounding areas, from the 80s and up level.
Four Maids Quit At Holiday Inn

By MAURY HERMANN

TROY, Ala.—Four Negro maids recently charged by the Army with dancing in a Troy, Ala., hotel, have been discharged on the condition of retiring from service. They are Maria L. King, Mrs. W. C. Anderson, Mrs. A. M. Williams and Mrs. Charles V. Allen.

Army authorities, who had charged the maids with violating a rule against dancing in uniform, in addition to the rule against the acceptance of tips, have agreed to discharge them on the condition that they resign. The maids, who were married, have been employed at the hotel for six weeks.

The maids were discharged on the condition that they would not work for anyone in the hotel. They are members of the Hotel Maids Union and have been active in organizing workmen in the hotel industry.

Spero, who was the manager, said the maids were discharged on the condition that they would not work for anyone in the hotel. He added that the maids were discharged on the condition that they would not work for anyone in the hotel.