MURDER IN ANNISTON

Violence Breaks Out at Tuskegee Church During TIAL's Third Integration Attempt

WILLIE BREWER SHOT ON HIGHWAY After Racist Rally at Courthouse

The SOUTHERN COURIER

FRIDAY, JULY 3, 1965

TEN CENTS

ANNISTON — Police Bravely, on July 2d, posted the night shift at the Anniston Post Office and at various key points around the city, where whites had lived with his wife and their two children, Richard and Patricia. Leverson had been in his time his business, hoping to find in that land and taking with him an American millionaire in his 85th year, whose first wife he was still legal.

On the morning of July 2d, the Negro was shot by a man in a blue suit and white shirt. Last day he finally killed him, but in the end he was put in the hospital in the county. The Negro was treated with a gun in the hospital, and was shot.
WILLIE BREWER

Willie Brewer was shot in Assistant Thursday. He died on Sunday. He was murdered because he was a Negro.

Brewer was shot just two hours after white segregationists held a rally on the steps of the county courthouse. Speakers at the meeting demanded the elimination of the Negro race.

When the white rally ended it was nighttime. Three of the white men got into a yellow Chevrolet and drove off into the darkness. The man sitting next to the driver cradled a shotgun across his knees, loaded with slugs for killing whites. They never missed.

Later, on Highway 202, the car of white men pulled behind a black Pontiac in Houston. It was 7:45 p.m., the car had chosen their prey. The man with the shotgun took aim at the Pontiac and fired.

From the window that night, the car of white men pulled behind a black Pontiac in Houston. It was 7:45 p.m., the car had chosen their prey. The man with the shotgun took aim at the Pontiac and fired.

Alabama has once again shown its true face. The full tragedy of Brewer's death is now part of the daily news. The Anissinians who have offered a $20,000 reward for information leading to the arrest of the man who murdered Brewer have given up. They are asking the same question. Each time a Negro is killed, a white man can go unpunished.

Alabama is not the only state where the human life have lost a good man, a citizen who gave his life to the cause of justice. The killers of a Negro in a yellow Chevrolet are the same killers who committed the murder of a white man in a black Pontiac.

When racial partition (the system where whites and blacks are separated) began--it's still bad. They have been trying to keep us from using our children's educational facilities in other parts of the city in order to achieve racial balance.

In almost all the large Northern cities, civil rights groups have attacked this kind of school segregation. They have demonstrated, signed petitions, and boycotted stores.

But by far the biggest protests have been in the South. Since the Civil Rights League report, nearly 90 percent of Negro children attend integrated schools. Civil rights groups have demonstrated almost daily for the past month. Several times they have blocked traffic, when hundreds of marchers sat down in the middle of downtown dash traffic.

In all, over 300 people have been arrested, and Negro leaders have begun to call Chicago police tactics "a parody of Alabama."

This weekend two Negro leaders from other cities will visit Chicago to discuss the problems. John L. Lewis, the A F L-C I O president, and the Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr., will begin their tour of city-wide marches.

The demonstrations are beginning to have an effect in Washington. The U. S. Office of Education, which so far has been concerned only with Southern school integration, now is asking for more federal aid for Northern schools to integrate. The White (Civil Rights Act of 1960) has not been enacted, but its implementation has been slow. And the North has many schools that are now being desegregated. The operation of the North's schools is now being desegregated. The operation of the North's schools is now being desegregated.

Six months ago, a Selma Negro says, "I would have been lynched if I had tried to go into Peretti's Caverna. Now, nobody pays attention to me." Long lines of Negroes now stand in the Dallas County courthouse, waiting to register to vote. Six months ago, they would have been yelled at, shoved, and harassed. Now, Dallas County registrars must get them registered or disobey a federal court order. The only link with the past is心底 registrant R. H. Atkins, who occasionally walks out into the hall, spraying deodorant in the air.

Civil rights workers stay up all night, phoning local Negroes to get them to come to a mass meeting and demonstration the next morning. The hot Alabama sun rises and it is the site of mass demonstrations and arrests. The county board of registrars from Dallas County...

The Department of Education has refused to cooperate with Tuskegee Institute's Summer Education Project.

The Delhi County superintendent of education, Virgil Price, said he still hopes to get cooperation from the 11-county district.

On September 1, Price said he had approved the program, but when he heard there would be Negro students in white homes, he changed his mind.

"I can't be responsible for a white man leaning against the pool room door," Price said, as he drops the letter into a wastebasket. "But I have received letters from hundreds of people who like the way I've been running the school.

"We're getting more members every day," says the curly-haired Klansman. "In this week alone, we have 1,000 applications from every part of the country. But how can we be sure that a man is a member of the KKK?"

A recent order from the Imperial Klans of the United States made it known that no Klansman is a member of the KKK if he doesn't have a copy of the Klansman magazine.

"We're going to Congress to serve a race and not the others," said Robert Murphy, the attorney for the Klan.

Youth Drops Test After Marches

Hale Drops Test After Marches

By EDWARD H. HODGSON

The Hale County Board of Education has decided to drop its literacy test that was given to 110 Negro students from the county's six high schools to determine their fitness for the United Negro College Fund. The test was administered at the county's State Coliseum.

The Hale Board of Education agreed to drop its language and literature test after determining that the number of students who were tested was adequate. The board also decided to conduct the test in the future using a different method.

Dr. Samuel H. Johnson, the county's superintendent of schools, said that the test was given to determine the students' eligibility for admission to the United Negro College Fund, which is a scholarship program for Negro students.

The test was administered on Saturday, and the results were announced on Monday.

The board has decided to conduct the test again next year, using a different method.
