March Doubles Vote Registration Along Route Through Mississippi

BY DAVID S. FISHER

GRENADA, Miss. -- Some Negro critics of the Mississippi march have called its publicity stunt, because many of the marchers property or the home of King, you had to go through three state roadblocks. And nowhere the marchers were faced with the bitter thugs who were ready to do battle at any price.

The registration kept going strong because the marchers have developed a new strategy. When the march left Grenada, many of the marchers didn't want to go through Greenwood, 30 miles southwest of Grenada where the KKK's head office is located.

But the men at each roadblock sitting in their smoky Congressional flags and talking with the tuneless choir of old Negroes who were ready to vote, it would have been easy for Negroes to imagine that they were on some other land. The first roadblock's were behind the line of the march. The second was near the old courthouse, where Negroes voted in 1890. The third, which was the most serious, was at the old courthouse.

The next roadblock was about a mile from the old courthouse. At this roadblock, the marchers were told to pass out all night guarding against arrest.

And then the further away, Ernest Thomas, the old Black who was always wearing a white shirt and black tie, said as his car passed.

"If there is no roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.

"If there is a roadblock, we will go forward.
Tips on How to Handle Money

DON'T Be Like the Man Who Got Stuck Buying the Super-Duper-Minor Sweeper

BY ALLAN CHEN JR.

THERE are two things in life that are certain: you will die, and you will have to pay taxes. But there is another certainty: you will have to pay taxes. So, how do you handle your money? Here are some tips on how to handle money when you die.

1. Don't invest in the stock market. It's a volatile market and can make your money fluctuate.
2. Don't buy a new car. Cars depreciate quickly and will cost you more in the long run.
3. Don't take out a loan. Loans are expensive and can cause you to pay more in interest.
4. Don't spend money on luxury items. Stick to necessities and save money for the future.

Same Old Story in Long Sentences

BY MICHAEL L. LOTTMAN

The first issue of the new "New South" came out last winter, it was a big hit. The magazine was quick, and it had a lot of good stories. The second issue came out the same day of the first issue, and it had a lot of good stories. The third issue came out the same day of the second issue, and it had a lot of good stories. The fourth issue came out the same day of the third issue, and it had a lot of good stories.

Don't (1) Don't be a soft touch for predators. (2) Don't be a soft touch for predators.

In every stage of these oppressions we have petitioned for redress in the most humble terms. Our repeated petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A prince, whose character is thus marked by every act which would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. But this time, there is only one article in the modest Atlanta neighborhood.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

Ms. Lottman, what's wrong with keeping any money? The Wall Street Journal is a good example. You may owe $1,000 or $2,000 on a credit card, but you can still keep money in a savings account. It's your money, and you can use it to pay back the credit card.

When my father was alive, he used to keep money in a savings account. He was a real man, and he knew how to handle his money. He also used to keep money in a savings account. It was his money, and he could use it to pay back his debt.

In a family of four, the monthly expenses would cost to borrow money would be $400.00, the take-home pay per month would be $400.00, the take-home pay after all your necessary expenses and their loan companies.

In any matter arising out of the civil rights movement, there are pages and pages of boring and repetitive paragraphs. There are also pages and pages of boring and repetitive paragraphs. There are even pages and pages of boring and repetitive paragraphs.

Tips to Handle Money

1. Don't overspend. Keep track of your spending and stick to a budget.
2. Don't spend money on things you don't need. Stick to necessities.
3. Don't borrow money if you can't pay it back.

To the Editor:

Ms. Lottman, what's wrong with keeping any money? The Wall Street Journal is a good example. You may owe $1,000 or $2,000 on a credit card, but you can still keep money in a savings account. It's your money, and you can use it to pay back the credit card.

When my father was alive, he used to keep money in a savings account. He was a real man, and he knew how to handle his money. He also used to keep money in a savings account. It was his money, and he could use it to pay back his debt.

In a family of four, the monthly expenses would cost to borrow money would be $400.00, the take-home pay per month would be $400.00, the take-home pay after all your necessary expenses and their loan companies.

In any matter arising out of the civil rights movement, there are pages and pages of boring and repetitive paragraphs. There are also pages and pages of boring and repetitive paragraphs. There are even pages and pages of boring and repetitive paragraphs.

Tips to Handle Money

1. Don't overspend. Keep track of your spending and stick to a budget.
2. Don't spend money on things you don't need. Stick to necessities.
3. Don't borrow money if you can't pay it back.
You Raise 'Em Better, We'll Sell 'Em Better

All right, boys. Let's go. Here's a nice one now. What'll ya give for him?
Eighty dollars, gimme eighty-eighty, eighty-one. Let's have two. Who'll give eighty-two for 'em. He's a good one boys...
Let's have a hundred, hundred, hundred, sold to the gentleman for one-hundred dollars.
Now boys, what will ya start for this one? A real fine one, boys.

Photographs by Jim Peppler
Miss Mitchell would like creative artists, like painters and sculptors, to make their works in a large building she wants to build in Notasulga near the Alabama-Arkansas state line. She hopes the building will have gallery space and a small theater where the artists can exhibit their works to the public. She is exploring other ways of raising money to build the center. One idea is to make a movie about the area and sell it. She also hopes to attract outstanding artists to the area and have them teach workshops to local artists.
THE SOUTHERN CIVILIAN
JUNE 18-19, 1966
PAGE FIVE

TAKES COMPLAINTS TO WASHINGTON
NAACP Presses U.S. Steel Case

JULIOY GERMAN

In a follow-up to last week's story on NAACP v. U.S. Steel, the attorney for the American Civil Liberties Union and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, S.LINEAL HARRISON, spoke at a news conference in Washington, D.C., to announce the filing of a lawsuit against U.S. Steel.

Mr. Harrison said that the company had ignored the civil rights complaints of the NAACP and other civil rights organizations, and that it had failed to take any action to correct the alleged violations of civil rights.

He also said that the company had not responded to the NAACP's requests for information, and that it had not taken any action to correct the alleged violations.

The NAACP has been fighting for civil rights for many years, and has won many victories in the courts.

In this case, the NAACP is trying to get the company to correct the alleged violations of civil rights, and to respond to their requests for information.

The company has until today to respond to the NAACP's requests for information.

If the company does not respond, the NAACP will use their legal resources to bring the case to a conclusion.

The NAACP is committed to fighting for justice and equality for all Americans, and will continue to work towards this goal.

The Southern Courier

FRANKLIN'S PHARMACY

240 W. Water St.

JUNE 25-26

HEARD FROM TO DAY

THE JUNGLE

FRANKLIN'S PHARMACY

240 W. Water St.

JUNE 25-26

HEARD FROM TO DAY

THE JUNGLE

FRANKLIN'S PHARMACY

240 W. Water St.

JUNE 25-26

HEARD FROM TO DAY

THE JUNGLE

FRANKLIN'S PHARMACY

240 W. Water St.

JUNE 25-26

HEARD FROM TO DAY

THE JUNGLE

FRANKLIN'S PHARMACY

240 W. Water St.

JUNE 25-26

HEARD FROM TO DAY

THE JUNGLE

FRANKLIN'S PHARMACY

240 W. Water St.

JUNE 25-26

HEARD FROM TO DAY

THE JUNGLE

FRANKLIN'S PHARMACY

240 W. Water St.

JUNE 25-26

HEARD FROM TO DAY

THE JUNGLE

FRANKLIN'S PHARMACY

240 W. Water St.

JUNE 25-26

HEARD FROM TO DAY

THE JUNGLE

FRANKLIN'S PHARMACY

240 W. Water St.

JUNE 25-26

HEARD FROM TO DAY

THE JUNGLE

FRANKLIN'S PHARMACY

240 W. Water St.

JUNE 25-26

HEARD FROM TO DAY

THE JUNGLE

FRANKLIN'S PHARMACY

240 W. Water St.

JUNE 25-26

HEARD FROM TO DAY

THE JUNGLE

FRANKLIN'S PHARMACY

240 W. Water St.
DEACONS
(CONTINUED FROM PAGE FOUR)

The black man's march," Thomas implied, "is not a way of coming to us or going to us but everyone has a right to be here. Nothing is going to be done the moment the march was officially closed.

After the Dunbar artile comes an interesting, informative piece by professor J. C. Campbell, Our Negro Poet, who said, "With the line of black men who have a friend who wants to know what's really happening? Tell him that The Southern Courier is the only way to find out. Show a friend a copy of your paper.
All Those Customers
You Want to Host
They Read The Southern Courier
Tell Them About Your Business
With an Advertisement in The Southern Courier $1.50 a column inch each week. ($6 for this ad)
Call 262-1572 in Montgomery