THES

Jr., last weekend at Oakley Training School, the state supervised vis lUng period, "but you could tell they was being mistreated." She but I thought a mother had a right to know those things. I knows where my child­ what had they did. Travis Buckley (Jasper County attorney) told me to shut up, he "never knowed a white person's number to cali."

Mrs. Thomas said she's stayed worried ever since Thomas and a second 15-

Later in the day, Mrs. Thomas said, she was told she had to raise $100 bond

PHILADELPHIA, Miss. — "Gunsmoke" had just

Another Beating

Philadelphia

FRIDAYS through SUNDAY.

Mrs. Thomas was not the only one to suspect beaten to a pulp by a white racists, she said. But Percy Lee Thomas never did confess. His mother said he told her, "I

In charge of the prosecution, explained,

"Some Negroes were Intimidated to

The men swore out warrants thatled

The vote. Under Alabama law, this makes it a fel­

Mrs. Moore, a resident of Lowndes County,

In charge of the prosecution, explained,

wife to vote for the candidates because they

Jr. to stop the Montgomery County

Mrs. Moore, a resident of Lowndes County,

...on to vote for the candidates because they

"Some Negroes were intimidated by the ultimately, to vote for the candidates because they

"Some Negroes were intimidated by the

The men swore out warrants that led

"Some Negroes were intimidated by the

"Some Negroes were intimidated by the

"Some Negroes were intimidated by the

"Some Negroes were intimidated by the

me to vote for the candidates because they federal court in New Orleans, La., ordered the

Jr. to give the demonstrators a

The men swore out warrants that led

"Some Negroes were intimidated by the

The men swore out warrants that led

"Some Negroes were intimidated by the

The men swore out warrants that led

"Some Negroes were intimidated by the

The men swore out warrants that led
LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor:

To those who do not have the Montgomery campaign in mind, it may be interesting to know how the campaign got started and some of the accomplishments that have been made.

The Montgomery Improvement Association was organized in 1955 by Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and other civil rights leaders. The campaign was launched in 1958 with the goal of desegregating all public facilities in Montgomery, including schools, buses, and restaurants.

In a series of nonviolent demonstrations, the campaign fought for the rights of African Americans to be treated equally under the law. The most famous of these demonstrations was the bus boycott, which lasted from December 5, 1955, to December 20, 1956.

As a result of the campaign, the Supreme Court of the United States declared that segregation in public facilities was unconstitutional. This decision paved the way for the civil rights movement to continue its work across the country.

We believe that the Montgomery campaign was a turning point in the fight for civil rights, and we encourage others to learn more about its history and to support the ongoing struggle for justice and equality.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]

Write your letter here.

---

Schools 'Better Wake Up'

BY VERA PATON

Negro educational institutions were founded to meet the specific needs of African American students. These schools often faced challenges in meeting the academic and social needs of their students, but they also played a crucial role in providing opportunities for education and leadership development.

Today, many Negro schools continue to serve as centers of excellence, offering high-quality education and support to their students. However, there is still much work to be done to ensure that these schools have the resources and support they need to succeed.

We encourage others to learn more about the history and current state of Negro schools, and to support efforts to improve their conditions and help them succeed.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]

---

People Complain About Macon Poverty Program

By Mary Ellen Gaul TUCKER

People are complaining about the Macon Poverty Program, which is intended to provide assistance to low-income residents of the city. Many people feel that the program is not doing enough to help them, and that it should be expanded to better meet their needs.

We encourage the city to listen to these concerns and to work with the residents to improve the program. It is important that we ensure that all people have access to the resources they need to thrive.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
At the Country Polling Places

RURAL ELECTION DAY

Photographs by Jim Peppler
NEGROES GET MYSTERIOUS SAMPLE BALLOT

Mobile Election: Who Did What—and Why?

BY JOHN C. DAMANTE

"If you don't vote this time, it'll be that I'm fed up," said a Prichard household a week before the election. "You get the candidates campaigning, but they ain't campaigning facts; and our supposed to-be-leaders are talking voting, but they don't talk about any candidates. It's like a big­ private conversation been going on and it's been going on too long.

There really isn't anything running," said another voter. "It's hard to de­ decide. We haven't had a lot of public meetings where the candidates would be in the room so people could talk to them.

The announcement during election time in Mobile was nothing new. It's been going on every election.

In the past, a flood of confusing "sample ballots" poured into the community each election, showing what each candidate stood for, and how they would vote on specific issues. But this year, with the new voter registration laws, many voters were too discouraged to even attempt to register. Voter registration was a much-discussed issue in Mobile, with Long, Prichard, and Coordinating Committee meetings held weekly to discuss the problem. But few people showed up to register, and the registration lists remained largely empty.

"I'm fed up," said a Prichard vote this time, it'll be that vote in two-three weeks.

When Williams of the NPVL was asked if he thought this election would be the last, he smiled. "I'm sure this is the last."

"What does non-partisan really mean?" one man asked. "It means that the members of the committee are not affiliated with any political party."

"They don't want you to know that the tickets were rigged," one man explained. "At some meetings, they called for a boycott of the election, and urging that the voter first split a ticket, and then vote for the ticket that best represented them."

As the election day neared, some white men paid visits to the NPVL office. Among them was a 40-year-old Black man, who was seen standing outside the office. "I'm just here to see what's going on," he said. "I'm not going to vote in this election, but I want to know what's happening."
Stokely Carmichael in Boston

From the College to the Ghetto

BY STEPHEN K. COTTON

STOKELY CARMICHAEL's visit to Boston began with a light, witful, yellow button-down shirt, and the "God"); and the dratt ("We don't think less than an hour of it all

The federal government, Carmichael told lawyers for the Negroes then asked Judge John Greene Jr. to set a 60-day deadline for the payment of $200, which would be used to cover court costs. Lawyers for the Negroes then asked Judge Greene to increase the amount they had until the next court date. Lawyers for the Negroes then asked Judge Greene to reduce the amount they had until the next court date.

BOSTON, Massachusetts -- Stokely Carmichael, a leader of the Black Power movement, arrived in Boston yesterday to begin a week-long stay here. He is scheduled to speak at the University of Massachusetts at Amherst tonight. The speeches are expected to be peaceful and orderly.

Carmichael, the leader of the Black Power movement, arrived in Boston yesterday to begin a week-long stay here. He is scheduled to speak at the University of Massachusetts at Amherst tonight. The speeches are expected to be peaceful and orderly.
Carver of Montgomery Heads for Title

Game of the Week

BY ARUM CARR JR.
MONTGOMERY--The mighty Wolverines of Carver High School, with a perfect 9-0-0 record, will be in the state championship game next month. Carver triumphed in cross-town rival, Booker T. Washington High School, 49-14, last Saturday in Centennial Bowl. It was the 56th annual City High School, and Carver's third straight victory. The Wolverines will probably meet Mobile Central High School in Mobile County Training School for the title. The two schools were tied 0-0 in their traditional battle on Thanksgiving Day. In last Saturday's romp, the Wolverines passed through Willie Roberson's four touchdowns. The wild game featured numerous fumbles, interceptions, and blocked kicks.

On the second play from scrimmage, Carver took the lead with an 80-yard pass from quarterback Clinton Drake to end Hubert Pender, followed by Todd Hardeman extra point made it 7-0. But the Yellow Jackets of BTW came right back with a 10-yard touchdown pass from Eugene Charles to Sam Rogers, to take the lead, 7-6, with the try for the PAT was smothered.

Then BTW had its first chance of the passing game that bothered the Lions all afternoon. Carver and Robert Vinson blocked Willie's two kicks, picked up the loose ball and ran 64 yards for a touchdown. After that, it was all Carver. Clinton Taylor of Carver intercepted one of the Jackets' passes, andshort yardage runner Arrington ran 24 yards for a touchdown. Robert Vinson interrupted another Drakes pass early in the fourth quarter, and that led to Wolverine's fourth TD of the game. Robert Vinson added the final score.

This victory sent the entire team--coaches and sailors--on a warpath to blanks and Willam Gary of Carver. The Wolverines were marching early in the season last year, and out of their first nine games this fall, they were a rugged bunch. By last Saturday, they were moved with military precision.

Refute School

(CERTIFIED FROM PAGE ONE)

Shut down a phone roll. It's hard to tell whether or not it was the only one because it wasux, the Reform School, New at Lake City, Ohio, and nearby counties. There is no or almost no faculty to tell, the school board, teachers, administrators, and others.

The school was visited on Monday, Oct. 14, by Otis Pinkard, who is president of the Tuskegee Civic Association, and by the Board of Education, to tell the audience which of the school board, teachers, administrators, and others.

The school was visited on Monday, Oct. 14, by the Tuskegee Civic Association, and by the Board of Education, to tell the audience which of the school board, teachers, administrators, and others.