null
Democrats Brawl in Chicago
Humphrey Fights to Keep ‘Contracts’ With Men Who Control Convention Votes

By John C. Damante

CHICAGO, Illinois—If the nation takes the sharp turn to the right that many people expect, the Democratic National Convention of 1968 will have a lot to do with it.

For here the political party that has run its course into the morass may very well be forced to choose a successor in the next few days and it is in the making of that choice that Humph...-

[Text continues]
Sweating It Out

Football practice at Carver High, Montgomery, Ala.

Photos by
Kenneth W. Lumpkin
Season Is Over: For Rebs, A's

By MICHAEL L. LOTTMAN

MONTGOMERY, Ala.—In the baseball world, it is the path that leads to the Caravelle.

It was a night of inconsequence, a night when the fabric of the game was stretched and torn. The fabric was pulled to the breaking point, but it did not break. The fabric was pulled to the point of pain, but it did not hurt. The fabric was pulled to the point of despair, but it did not fall. The fabric was pulled to the point of defeat, but it did not lose.

The fabric was pulled to the point of the end of the line, but it did not break. The fabric was pulled to the point of the end of the road, but it did not stop. The fabric was pulled to the point of the end of the season, but it did not end.

The fabric was pulled to the point of the end of the game, but it did not end.